

One Day, Samuel Beckett

Edited by Burçin Erol

Department of English Language and Literature
Hacettepe University and
The Embassy of Ireland

Irish Writers Series : 3

© Hacettepe University, Department of English Language and Literature, 2014
Ankara, Turkey
Printed by Bizim Büro

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements

Foreword

Preface

1. Man's Post-tragic Position in Beckettian Drama.....1
Ayşegül Yüksel
2. "Nothing is More Real than Nothing": A Reading of Beckett's "Ping"
as a Postmodern Text 11
Oya Batum Menteş
3. Not I: An Existentialist Statement on the Human Condition.....23
A. Deniz Bozer
4. Beckett's Molloy : Some Things Still "Affirmative"39
Aytül Özüm
5. The Influence of Music on Samuel Beckett's Art.....55
Neslihan Ekmekcioğlu
6. Self-translated: Samuel Beckett.....71
Sinem Sancaktaroğlu Bozkurt
- Note on Contributors83

Acknowledgements

I would like to thank all the colleagues and staff members in the Department of English Language and Literature who have helped in the process of putting together the articles in this volume which were formerly presented in the “One Day, Samuel Beckett Conference” organised at Hacettepe University. I owe special thanks to Assistant Professor Dr. Sinan Akilli for his ever present support and for designing the cover of the present volume. I would like to express my gratitude to Barrie Maguire for allowing us to use his painting, the portrait of Samuel Beckett for the cover. Special thanks are due to the Irish Embassy and to Simon Williams the Associate Director of Trinity Foundation who have most kindly collaborated for the conference and made the keynote speaker Dr. Nicholas Johnson’s presence at the conference possible. Unfortunately due to copyright restrictions it was not possible to include Dr. Nicholas Johnson’s chapter, however I am grateful to him for his contribution to the volume in the form of a preface. Last but not least I would like to express my gratitude to Hacettepe University for the financial support of the project.

