

REPRESENTATIONS OF DIASPORIC IDENTITIES IN BRITAIN

EDITOR
Prof. Dr. A. Deniz BOZER

HACETTEPE
ÜNİVERSİTESİ
YAYINLARI
2017

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	v
Introduction: A. Deniz BOZER	vii
Chapter One: Representation of Diasporic Identities in Hanif Kureishi's Borderline	1
Sinem ORUÇ
Chapter Two: Counter-Strike: The Skinhead Culture Back Fires in Sarah Kane's Skin	15
Zümre Gizem YILMAZ
Chapter Three: Sense of Displacement and the Alienation of the Diaspora in Monica Ali's Brick Lane	27
Ersoy GÜMÜŞ
Chapter Four: Hegemonic Hospitality in Relation to Diasporic Male Identities in Hanif Kureishi's My Ear at His Heart	41
Şafak HORZUM
Chapter Five: Redefining Whiteness: Irish Experience in England in Neil Jordan's Breakfast on Pluto	69
Fahriye Selvi DANACI
Chapter Six: Chutnied Identities: Re-Oriental/Occidental Indian Diasporic Selves in Gautam Malkani's Londonstani	89
Indu B. KURUP
Notes on Contributors	113